

PARASOL FOUNDATION LL.M. DEGREE PROGRAM AND APPLICATION

Thank you for requesting information about the International LL.M. program at Tel Aviv University Faculty of Law.

Applicants must have completed an undergraduate degree in law (LL.B., JD, Bachelor of Laws) prior to starting the LL.M. degree. Students in their final year of undergraduate law degree studies may apply, and will be accepted on the condition they finish their first degree in good standing (above 80/100).

▶ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Parasol Foundation International LL.M. program is a one year program that attracts outstanding law students to study and collaborate with Israel's elite legal academia, students and legal professionals. With over 50 classes taught by world-renowned professors, international students have the opportunity to explore contemporary challenges to law stemming from processes of globalization, the Israeli legal and social systems, the complexities of the Middle East region and the technological and entrepreneurial dynamism of the "Start-up Nation."

Students may pursue a general course of study, or may choose to concentrate their courses in one of the following areas:

- Business Law
- Law and Technology
- International Law and Human Rights

▶ PROGRAM DATES

The LL.M. program covers 32 academic credits over the period of 3 academic semesters.

- The opening Core Semester (including Orientation Day) takes place September 1 – October 20.
- The Fall Semester takes place October 23, 2022 – January 22, 2023 followed by a two-week exam period.
- The Spring Semester takes place March 12, 2023 – June 30, 2023 followed by a two-week exam period.

*ALL SEMESTERS ARE MANDATORY. Dates are subject to change.

▶ TUITION

For the 2022-2023 academic year is USD $21,000.

Tuition includes administration fees, access to university libraries, and a number of social events and trips.

Housing, meals, transportation and incidentals are not included in the tuition fees.

▶ TUITION ASSISTANCE

Qualifying applications the International LL.M. program will receive a merit-scholarship. Applicants may also apply for needs-based aid..

External sources of funding are listed on the TAUi website – please check with each institution directly to confirm your eligibility.

For more details, visit our website or contact me directly.

▶ APPLICATION DATES

Early Admission (for dorms): In order to guarantee a room in the dorms, students should apply before March 31.

Application Deadline: All student should apply by May 31.

▶ APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Create a student profile on the application portal and upload the following documents:

- Law degree transcript(s) & diploma(s) – Transcripts must show all courses and grades obtained, and should be submitted with the corresponding diploma. Transcripts may have to be officially translated at the applicant's expense to be reviewed by the Registrar's Office.
- Law school ranking – If available, please ask your law school to provide a letter indicating your individual law school ranking.
- Completed online application form – Make sure to complete the program-related questions on the application portal.
- CV/Resume
- Personal Statement (essay) – Your personal statement should be no more than 500 words and should describe your background, your academic or professional interests and goals, and your motivation to study in the International LL.M. program.
- Two letters of recommendation – Letters should be written by law professors or legal employment supervisors – or a combination of both.
- TOEFL or IELTS score – All applicants applying to TAU International English-speaking programs who are from non-English speaking countries or are non-native speakers of English must provide proof of English proficiency as part of the application requirements. To view specific instructions for completing this step, please click here.
- $150 application fee